Congratulation Graduate

Dr. and Mrs. Michael (Linda) Eakers are proud to announce that their son, Garrett, received a Bachelor of Science degree in Microbiology from the University of Oklahoma during their Commencement exercises on May 11. He was recognized with honors as he graduated magna cum laude with a 3.78 GPA and was bestowed with membership into the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society. As a National Merit Scholar, member of the President's Leadership Class of 2015-16, the Henderson's Scholars Program, and recipient of the Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation Scholarship, Garrett also received minors in Political Science, Chemistry, and Spanish. He earned Dean's List honors, received the Distinguished Presenters Award from the OU Honors College for his scientific research, and other accolades. Garrett has been accepted into the OU College of Medicine Class of 2023 where he plans to pursue a career in medicine.

Good morning! Starting in June I will be holding a summer session for anyone interested in volunteering! The purpose of this summer is to help provide more information on volunteering for our parish and to build a strong foundation for the next generation! We will meet on Sundays after mass for the months of June and July. There will also be refreshments! For more information feel free to contact me.
