Father's Corner

Commentator Ministry

I'm Jocelyn Gaines, here to share what is great about being the Commentator before mass begins. As you already know, Corpus Christi is a friendly, gregarious parish where we naturally greet each other as we walk down the aisles to our pews. Because we're living in the age of 24 hour social media technology, most of us have a cell phone with us at all times (including when we're at church). So, the first role of the commentator is to greet everyone from the lectern and gently remind us to turn off or mute our cell phones or other devices so that we can give our full attention to the mass.

We are always happy and excited to have visitors come and share in our worship; to experience the songs of our choir and the thought provoking homilies of Fr Danny and our Deacons.

The Commentator joyfully acknowledges all visitors by asking them to stand and officially welcomes them in the name of our pastor, deacons, staff and the entire Corpus Christi Church community. An invitation is also extended to those who may be interested in becoming a member of our parish.

The final role of the commentator is to call us all to individual greetings to those who are seated around us. Thus, with open minds and joyful hearts, we are ready to begin our worship.
